EXTERNAL SENDER

Dear Andrew,

It is a strange question honestly.

If Mr. Cho contacted you and asked to contact me you have to know his interests.

If Mr. Cho needs to receive any comments from us we need to receive the confirmation letter from him.

Asked him to list the issues he would like us to comment.

As he has never payed as any fees he is not our client but our policy doesn't allow to comment any contacts with clients.

Kind Regards,

Alexander Kosovskiy

Thank you Alexander, that is helpful. Can you tell me what programs Mr. Cho was considering? If you don't know or can't tell me without a signed letter from Mr. Cho, I would appreciate knowing.

Dear Andrew,

We didn't save any chats in WhatsApp.

I just can confirm that Mr. Cho didn't start any process with us and we didn't provide him with any services.

He was interesting in some programs but he decided not to move further because of some personal and unknown reasons.

Kind Regards,

Alexander Kosovski

Alexander,

Thank you, that is my understanding as well. Mr. Cho told me that he discussed some services with Astons but never actually moved forward. I'm just looking for records of Mr. Cho's correspondence with whoever he spoke to at Astons, which I believe took place over WhatsApp, so we can demonstrate to the government that he did not move forward with working with you.

Alexander,

Thank you for the prompt reply. Mr. Cho is incarcerated and does not have access to his email. I can try to get him a letter to sign, but I cannot meet him in person due to the COVID-19 pandemic so any effort to obtain his signature will be delayed. When he and I last spoke on the phone, he gave me verbal permission to reach out to you. If helpful, I have attached my notice of appearance as one of Mr. Cho's attorneys in the case against him in federal court here in New York.

Happy to discuss further on the phone. In the meantime I will try to get a letter signed by Mr. Cho as quickly as possible.
